I've been performing since the age of 13 and have enjoyed every moment. I've completed my training at The Urdang Academy which has been fuel for positive progressions and future ambitions. Composing is how I spend my free time as well as participating in sporting competitions such as Triathlons and gym. I've composed songs for clothing brands such as Hokoda Moon and Zuki & I. My goals are to create the same performances and compositions that inspired me to join the arts.
