I am a strong young actor with on set/stage filming experience. I completed a short film playing the role of Connor in "Unsung" which is now in post-production, The last role I played was a child lead role for a Campaign called "Look Closer"

Feedback: Matt and I were both talking recently about how great we thought Zack was. I think his performance is one of the best in the film and he's the youngest actor. He got the subtlety of the role brilliantly and that was so important for this as those few moments really make the difference and can't be overacted - from James Labous
